MEMPHIS APPEAL.

Soldiers' Meeting at Nashville.

On Monday evening, the 22d instant, there was a large meeting at Nashville of soldiers and sailors to appoint delegates to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which will assemble at New York on the 4th prox. Gen. A. R Z. Dawson presided and Col. Z. P. Clark and Maj. Frank Reeves were Vice-Presidents, and I. D. Walker Secretary. The Committee on Resolutions, Cols. Frank P. Cahill and James Chamberlin, and Maj. I. D. Walker, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Believing that the prosperity and future greatness of our country now depends mainly upon the promotion of peace, harmony and good will toward all men, and having confidence in the gallantry, honor and integrity of those who were lately arrayed against us in battle, and believing that when they surrendered to the armies of the United States and took the oath of allegiance to the United States Government, that they did so honestly and in good faith; and whereas, their conduct since the close of the war has been such as to challenge even their most bitter political opponents to point to one single instance where a true soldier of the Confederate Army has wilfully violated his parole; and whereas, under the practical workings of the present proscriptive policy of the dominant party in the South, loyally to party and not loyalty to the Constitution and Government of the United States, is the requisite to enfranchisement; therefore

Resolved, That the policy of the present dominant political party in disfranchising a large proportion of the citizens of our country is not only contrary to the spirit and genius of our Government, but unwise, ungenerous, and cowardly in the extreme and unworthy of the sanction of any one claiming to be a victor in the recent sanguinary struggle for the preservation of the glorious Republic in which we live, and for the perpetuation of which we perilled our lives, and now pledge our fortunes and sacred honor.

Resolved, That we are in favor of universal amnesty and pardon for all past political offenses in connection with the late war.

That the faith, integrity and credit of the Government must and shall be maintained, but that the onus of burthensome taxation, to which we are subjected, requires the most economy in administering the affairs of the nation, and the most rigid adherence to the law in discharging our national debt, and that the currency which we received for our services, in defending the life of the nation, is good enough for the discharge of the nation's obligations to the bondholders.

The Committee on Delegates reported the following named gentlemen as delegates, who were unanimously elected:

DELEGATES.

Gen. A. R. Z. Dawson, Col. Frank P. Cahill, Col. Z. P. Clark, Eug. B. W. Randall, U. S. Navy, Gen. Theodore Trauernicht.

ALTERNATES.

Capt. Cochran, Capt. W. Raps, of Murfreesboro; Col. Conde, of Memphis; Mr. Alberts, Major F. Linck, of Chattanooga.

TENNESSEE.

—We find the following account of the atrocious acts of Radicalism in East Tennessee, vouched for by the Banner of the 22d, as having transpired in McMinn county, in the eastern part of which is a band of desperadoes, who frequently move down upon the defenceless citizens for the purpose of plunder. The Banner says:

A few nights ago these villains visited the house of Mr. W. H. Wetmore, a peaceable citizen, and as inoffensive a man as lives. After failing to entice him out, they gave his house a terrible pelting with rocks, thrice threatening, with horrid oaths, to take his life if he did not leave in ten days, and yelling with much emphasis, "You are the d—d rebel that went South." Last Sunday night, the 7th instant, supposing that Mr. Wetmore was at home and in bed asleep, though he happened to be absent at the time, they again approached his house. Four of them with a heavy fence rail very suddenly burst open the front door, and with demoniac shoutsand yells, rushed into the room where Mrs. W. and her three children were asleep, and commenced immediately throwing rocks and other missiles upon the bed occupied by Mrs. W., before she could possibly get out of it, bawling at the top of their voices repeatedly and with oaths too shocking to pen, "Leave here! no such rebel shall stay here and live here. We have come to take your life; we have come to kill you; and we are going to do it;" besides uttering many other threats of violence and blood. At the same time some of the party outside broke in the window, which was protected by an outside shutter. The shattered glass fell upon a bed, and was followed by tables turned upside down, sticks and stones, Mrs. W., though severely bruised, succeeded in getting herself and children under another bed. The fiends hurled an ax through the room, caught up from the fireplace a heavy andiron and sent it violently against a little boy as he was scrambling under the bed burning and bruising him considerably, discharged firearms into the house, cut up chairs, broke up glassware, bedsteads and other articles of furniture, made two piles of clothing upon the floor and set fire to them, evidently intending to burn the house and inmates. At this juncture the oldest son, a lad of seventeen, fired a musket through an opening in his sleeping-room above, upon two of the party outside, and wounded badly both of them, knocking out an eye, and causing the blood to flow so freely as to plainly indicate their course to a house more than a mile distant. Three of the parties have been arrested and identified, two of whom have been bound over to appear at the ensuing term of the Circuit Court in August next, but the third one arrested is too badly wounded to be taken from his bed at present. Another party, standing behind the scene of blood and fire, will be found to be involved in this great crime, and for a very paltry consideration, and the aspect of political persecution was put upon it for a blind.

—On Saturday night last a party of men disguised as Kukluxes called upon a negro man named Hense, in the employ of Mayor Engle, of Columbia, and demanded to see him. While he was dressing, a pistol was fired through the door, the ball inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound in the thigh.

—On the same night, a similar party called at the residence of S. M. Arnell, a citizen of Maury county, but he was absent. It is said two disguised men went through the train, with rope in hand, vowing summary vengeance on Mr. A. There were thirty or forty in the larger gang. It is said that the rumor about the two men on the train is incorrect.

—On the same night some negro boys were playing marbles by moonlight, on the Mt. Pleasant pike, near the first tollgate, when they were fired upon by a party of the same sort, and one of them wounded in the shoulder.

—The Columbia Herald of Saturday says: Last night about ten o'clock, a singular and strange body or bodies of men made their appearance on the square. They seemed to come in town from every direction. They wore a peculiar dress, but entirely unlike the Kuklux garb. They were well mounted, and bore every mark of true gentlemen. It was impossible to form any correct estimate as to their number.

CONDENSED DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Brownsville, June Term, 1868.

BY H. CLAY KING, ESQ.

No. 28.—Trabue, Davis & Co. vs. R. H. Short & Co.

FACTS—This is an action against Short & Co., on a note made by Clanton & Co., to Short & Co., and indorsed by Short & Co., payable in New Orleans at six months from date with eight per cent. interest. The note was made and indorsed in Kentucky, where all the parties lived. Pleas. 1st res judicata.

2d. That by the law of Kentucky, the law merchant does not apply, and that the indorsers are only liable after the maker has been prosecuted to insolvency by the indorsee, who is called the assignee, in that State.

The proof showed that in 1860 the plaintiffs sued the defendants as indorsers in New Orleans, and obtained judgment on the note. On appeal to the Supreme Court of Louisiana, that Court held that the law of Kentucky governed the contract, and the plaintiffs then had no right of action against the defendants, and dismissed the cause, but without prejudice.

Held: 1. That the judgment of the Supreme Court of Louisiana is not res judicata, and is no bar to this action, as there was no final decision on the merits of the case.

2. The general rule is that the law of the place where the contract was made governs and fixes the rights of the parties, unless the contract was made with reference to the law of the place where the performance is to be had.

3. As to the maker of this note, the note being payable in Louisiana, the law of this State fixes his rights and liability, and governs as to him.

4. Generally the law of the place of the indorsement governs the contract of indorsement.

5. The maker's undertaking to pay the note in Louisiana, is not enough to show that the indorsement was made with reference to the laws of Louisiana. Hence, the law of Kentucky where the note was indorsed must determine the rights of the parties to this suit.

No 29.—Littlejohn vs. Fowler.

FACTS.—Fowler, by his agent, Farmington, sold to Littlejohn the growing crop on a tract of land near Memphis, and also rented the land to Littlejohn for $1200, to be paid in the future. The contract was reduced to writing but not stamped.

Fowler and Littlejohn—laying two counts in the declaration—one, on the written contract, assigning breaches, the other, a common count for use and occupation, etc. On the trial the plaintiff offered in evidence the written agreement, which was rejected for want of a stamp. The plaintiff then was non-suited on the first count.

The plaintiff then introduced the agent, Farmington, and proved by him the agreement between the parties, but failed to prove the actual use and occupation under the second count. It came out in the cross-examination of Farmington that the contract had been reduced to writing, and was the same set out in the first count.

Held: 1. That the practice of the courts in England, in entering a non-suit against the plaintiff, for want of, or insufficiency, of proof, does not exist in Tennessee. This power of non-suit is an invasion by the Court of the province of a jury. It is the right of the plaintiff, if he chooses, to have the jury pass finally on his case, on the merits.

2. This action cannot be maintained with the proof on the general count for use and occupation, for the witness, Farmington, failed to prove any actual use and occupation, although he proved an executory agreement to that effect.

3. The question is reserved as to whether an action can be maintained on a contract not alleged in the declaration to be in writing, if it turns out in the evidence that the same was reduced to writing, and void for want of a stamp.

No. 30.—Pope vs. Taylor, Cole & McLeod.

FACTS.—Pope employed Armstrong to haul a lot of cotton to Memphis, and to deliver the same to Galbreath, Stewart & Co., to be sold by them as cotton factors. Armstrong, instead of delivering the cotton as instructed, consigned the cotton to Taylor, Cole & McLeod, who were also cotton factors at Memphis, and who, without fraud on their part, sold the cotton as factors, and on their part paid Armstrong the proceeds of the cotton as his. Pope, the owner of the cotton, sues Taylor, Cole & McLeod for a conversion.

Held: 1. That where the principal invests the agent with the possession and apparent ownership of personal property, the agent can pass a valid title to a bona fide purchaser, although the agent may be acting in violation of his actual instructions.

2. An agent has not by virtue of possession merely, the power to sell.

3. Taylor, Cole & McLeod, in the sale of this cotton, acted as the agents of Armstrong, and as a principal cannot confer on an agent the power to commit a tort, Taylor, Cole & McLeod are liable directly to the owner of the cotton, as Armstrong himself would be.

4. As Pope, the owner of the cotton, never gave Armstrong any power of sale, nor clothed him with any apparent ownership of the property, all the acts of Armstrong in relation thereto were null and void, and constitute no protection whatever to Taylor, Cole & McLeod, who are liable to the owner for the value of the cotton.

5. It was held in this case that the act of 1866, increasing the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace to $250 in torts, did not affect the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court over such actions.

Democratic Gains in South Carolina.

The Charleston News of the 12th inst. states that the full returns of the recent county elections come in with great irregularity, and many of the returns received do not show the result with sufficient clearness to enable us to make a comparison of the vote with the vote of previous elections. Every district, however, appears to have increased its Democratic or Conservative vote, the change in some districts being startling. Comparing the vote at the county elections with the vote upon the ratification of the new Constitution, we obtain the following figures:

	Maj. for Cons.	Rad. Maj. Dem. Co.	Maj. Dem. Elec.	Maj. Dem. Gain.
Darlington	2019	1321	—	698
Laurens	764	—	554	1318
Chester	796	—	300	1039
Orangeburg	1790	1547	—	243
Union	710	—	1200	1910
Lancaster	88	—	200	118
Kershaw	1077	—	649	1726
	Maj.	Agt. Cons.
Spartanburg	668	—	1300	792
Oconee	140	—	350	110

This is surely encouraging, for it proves that the white men of the State are beginning to exert their whole strength as well as that the negroes are gradually forsaking the Loyal Leagues to vote with the Conservative party.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them co-equal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people, and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

WHO SHALL BE GOVERNOR?

The Jonesboro Flag is strenuous for T. A. Hamilton for Governor. The Chattanooga Republican, which has Hamilton's name up for Congress for the State at large, does not think he will do to follow the Executive whose frequent proclamations have obtained for him the sobriquet of "Old Proc." It says:

We believe that the exigencies of the times demand the services of some one whose name and character is a power within itself, and who is able beyond any contingency to cope with the determined obstinacy of the treacherous and rebellious element in our midst. Whether Mr. Hamilton's experience in matters of government under circumstances so trying and difficult is such that would give peace and security to the country, is not altogether known to the people.

These Radicals may settle the matter in dispute to satisfy themselves. Stokes is the favorite of the Chattanooga Radical. The Presidential election will determine whether either of the prominent Radicals has the ghost of a probability of wearing gubernatorial honors.

MISSISSIPPI.

—The Ripley Advertiser of the 20th says: "On Thursday evening, after the examination exercises had closed, a company of horsemen suddenly and mysteriously made their appearance on our streets, arrayed in different costumes, representing various characters, comic, queer and ghostly. Various conjectures were made as to their identity and mission by the uninitiated. Some said they were Kuklux, whilst others appeared not to know whence they came or whither they were going. But we observed as they paraded the streets, they never failed to bring down the house' whenever they would pass a crowd of our citizens. The affair was a complete success, showing that those who originated it and carried it out knew how to get up a good thing."

—In Marshall county, on the 13th, Jesse C. Tucker was shot and killed by Wm. Thomaston, both old citizens. An old feud had existed about a bale of cotton, and threats had been made.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Senator Wilson says he is not worth five hundred dollars in the world. This is because he left an honest calling to practice Radicalism. Taken at his real value, he is not worth five hundred cents.

—The conductor recently scalped in Nebraska has recovered, with a bald spot eight inches by four. That is almost as clean a shave as though some lean broker had operated.

—M'Cracken county, Ky., has just voted $500,000 to the Paducah and Elizabethtown Railroad. The election was held on the 20th.

—The New York World, that was prominent in getting up the Chase diversion, now says: The decisive, almost spurning emphasis with which a large wing of the Democratic party turn away from a candidate identified with negro suffrage, settles the question, as we think, and proves that any further advocacy of Mr. Chase's claims is an idle waste of words.

—Alex. H. Stephens and Herschel V. Johnson are urged to be present at the meeting of the National Democratic Convention from Georgia.

—At Philadelphia the Democratic Congressional nominations are: First District, Samuel Randall; second, Thos. B. Florence; third, John Moffatt.

—The estimated cost of building sidewalks in the three divisions of Chicago, during the next year, is $4000. The estimated cost of inspecting sidewalks during the same time is $8,100.

—The State debt of Louisiana is $18,852,604 14.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI.

Commencement Exercises.

The First Day's Proceedings.

Sophomore Declamation.

Phi Sigma Society Meeting.

[Special Correspondence Memphis Appeal.]

OXFORD, MISS., June 23.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Your correspondent reached Oxford Sunday afternoon, and found evidences of animation in the presence of a large number of persons at the depot.

The commencement sermon was preached at the University Chapel, on Sunday, by Rev. Dr. Ford, which we reached here too late to hear. On Monday morning at nine o'clock the Sophomore Prize Declamation commenced. The old Memphis brass band was present, and discoursed excellent music throughout the exercises. When the audience had gathered, Chancellor Waddell announced that the exercises would open with a reading of obituary notices by Rev. D. P. Bestor, of Columbus. The reverend gentleman then stepped forward and read the obituary notices of ex-Gov. McRae and Rev. Dr. Nichols, both formerly trustees of the college. Music by the band followed, and then commenced the contest for the prize—a gold medal. The speakers were generally fine looking young gentlemen, and made a splendid appearance. All spoke well, but as four of the speakers towered above the rest, and between them rests the prize, we shall only endeavor to speak of them. First among the number is Mr. H. M. Sullivan, to whom the first prize is generally conceded, both by students and visitors, though the decision of the judges will not be had until to-morrow morning. The piece selected for recitation by him was "The Roman Soldier—Last days of Herculaneum," and though our note-book accuses him of "o'er doing Termagant," it displayed a good conception, firm voice and delivery. He is tall and commanding in person, and speaks with tolerable ease and grace.

Next upon the list is Mr. McDonald Haman, between whom and Mr. Sullivan seems to rest the first prize. Mr. Haman recited an extract from "Pollock's Course of Time," in an admirable manner, and though there was a sort of drawl in some portions of his speech and an indistinct conception in others, yet the piece was finely rendered, and some passages really thrilling. His gesticulation was perhaps better than that of any other speaker.

Mr. J. C. N. McNeill and Mr. Thos. A. McWillie are about equal for the second prize, and in the opinion of some, ahead for the first prize. Both the latter wore a different style of declamation, from the first being more on the forensic order. Mr. McNeill chose for declamation the "Criminality of Dueling." He spoke in an easy, graceful manner, and his elocution was uniformly good throughout, but there were none of those lofty flights that characterized the recitations of the two first gone; the latter declaimed the "Invective Against Warren Hastings." What has been said of Mr. McNeill applies almost equally as well to Mr. McWillie, except that his voice is better and his gesticulation not so good.

The Phi Sigma Literary Society held its annual meeting last night. Judge T. A. Yerger, of Jackson, being appointed honorary President, who made a few appropriate remarks upon taking the chair. Rev. D. P. Bestor opened the exercises with prayer, and after music by the band, Mr. J. C. Cameron delivered a finely written salutatory.

Reports from the Treasurer and Librarian were then called for, and the latter stated that there were twelve hundred volumes in the library.

The valedictory was then read by Mr. S. C. Patton, and was a master-piece of composition and eloquence.

Mr. Jno. J. Stephenson responded in a handsome and appropriate manner; after which a number of visitors were called upon and responded briefly.

The exercises of a most pleasant and highly interesting character were then concluded by Dr. Ford, of Memphis, who pronounced the benediction.

The exercises of the Junior Class took place to-day, and was largely attended. Among those who acquitted themselves with most credit were Messrs. Jno. W. Shields, Robt. N. Miller, Frank A. Critz and Wm. S. Johnson. We would not make any "invidious distinctions," but say all did well.

The Senior exhibition takes place to-morrow, a levee to-morrow evening, and a grand ball Thursday night.

Quite a number of visitors are present, and the exercises are proving very entertaining. More anon from

MISSISSIPPI UNIVERSITY.

P. S.—Encouraging election news reach us from points near here. Water Valley, considered a Radical stronghold, gives only seven votes for the constitution and about three hundred and fifty against. Spring Dale gives seventeen for and between one and two hundred against. So much for our side.

TENNESSEE.

—The Nashville Gazette of the 23d says: Two weeks have been spent in the Criminal Court on the case of the State against B. H. Payne, and the closing argument is yet to be made by ex-Governor Neill S. Brown to-morrow. The jury will not retire on the case in all probability before Wednesday.

—A Tennessee friend of ours said no longer than yesterday that he should like of all things to see the names of "Pendleton of Ohio, and Seymour of Connecticut," spread upon the Democratic banner on the 4th of July, and added that there would be no mistake then about the principles of the Democratic candidates.

—The Nashville Gazette of the 23d says: Whatever be the nature or objects of the Kuklux Klan, if any such organization exists—it is open to the one objection, that it affords cover for wrong-doers, who may in a cowardly manner assume its garb, and bring odium on whole communities. But if the Kuklux were half so strong or terrible as Radicals would have us believe, these things could not be. The Klan must clear its skirts, in some way best known to itself, or must die a natural death.

—The Paris Intelligencer of the 20th says: A bloody difficulty occurred Tuesday evening on the west side of the public square, between a white man by the name of Lambert, a saloon keeper, and a colored barber, familiarly known as Billy. The former, without just provocation, made an attack upon the latter with a knife, cutting him severely in the head. The negro, who, until then had shown a disposition to avoid a difficulty by retreating, seized a whet-stone that was within reach and dealt his assailant a fearful blow on the head, knocking him down, and it is said, would have finished him but for the interposition of those present. As it was, Lambert was severely punished, though his wound is not considered dangerous. The barber, likewise, received an ugly cut on the head, but has not been confined on that account. The Intelligencer adds that Lambert was not in his right mind, having used chloroform previous to having a tooth drawn, and taken at the same time a glass of spirits that made him wild. Ordinarily he is quiet and orderly.

—The Union City Herald of the 19th says: On Thursday last, the citizens of Union City met at the Mayor's office, by ballot, to vote for or against a subscription by the corporation of $30,000, to aid in the building of the Mississippi River Railroad, through Obion county, to terminate at this city. To the credit of all the citizens, they voted for the subscription, without a negative.

—The Somerville Falcon of the 18th says: We learn that a negro was found hanging to the limb of a white oak tree, a short distance from Montague's bridge, about seven miles northwest of the place, a few days ago. The horse of a gentleman who was passing becoming frightened and refusing to cross over this bridge, led to the discovery. How it came there is a mystery that will probably never be solved.

The gavel used was the same used by Washington in laying the corner stone of the capitol.

The Democratic Convention to-day nominated Daniel W. Fox for Mayor.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—The Speaker presented a message from the President with a report of the Secretary of State relative to the cases of Warren and Costello, sentenced to penal imprisonment, which was referred.

Schofield, from the Committee on Elections, reported that the credentials of the Arkansas Representatives were in proper form, with a resolution directing the administration of the oath of office.

Brooks presented a protest, but the resolution was adopted and the members sworn in.

The protest presented by Brooks is signed by all the Democratic members, and is quite lengthy. It was read. The conclusion of it is as follows: "We, the representatives of the people from the Free States, in behalf of our constituents, earnestly and solemnly protest against this violence upon our Constitution—upon our people—and do hereby denounce and advise all friends of popular government to submit to this force and fraud only until at the ballot-box, and operating through the elections, the great wrong can be put right. There is no law in the land over the constitutional law, and there is no government but a Constitutional Government, and hence all bayonet made, and Congress imposed Constitutions are of no weight, authority or sanction, save that enforced by arms—an element of power unknown to Americans in time of peace, and never required but as it acts in and under the Supreme civil law and the Constitutional statutes enacted in pursuance thereof. We protest therefore in behalf of the free people of the North and West against the right of this military oligarchy established in Arkansas or elsewhere in the now re-enslaved States of the South, to impose upon us, through Congress, taxes, or customs, or other laws to maintain this oligarchy or its Freedmen's Bureau. We protest against going into the newly provised copartnership of military dictation and having negroes in the administration of this Government, and we demand in the name of others, in the name of the Constitution, and for the sake of posterity, not its reconstruction, but the restoration of that sacred instrument which has been to all of us a "fiery pillar" from 1787 unto its present overthrow, and in all solemnity before God and man, and under a full sense of the responsibility of all we utter, we do hereby affix our names to this protest against the admission of these persons claiming to be members of Congress from Arkansas."

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the tax bill.

A number of amendments were made to section 11, which prohibits distillation in breweries or sugar refineries. Section 12 was amended by making the tax on registered distilleries, on their mashing and fermenting capacity, as follows: On the first twenty bushels of grain or sixty gallons of molasses or less, in twenty-four hours, to $2 00.

On the motion of Schenck, the Committee rose and the House ordered that all debate on the bill be closed down to section 13, and the House again went into a Committee of the Whole. None of the sections were rejected and no amendments other than verbal ones were made to many of the sections from 10 to 46, all relating to distillation. Logan, from the Ways and Means Committee offered three new sections to come in after section 46. The first providing for the appointment by the Secretary of the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, of one officer for each United States Judicial District, to be called a Supervisor of Internal Revenue on distilled spirits and tobacco. The second directing that no general or special agent of the Treasury Department in connection with the internal revenue, except as provided for by this act, shall be appointed as a Commissioner, employed or retained in office; and the third declaring that no Assessor shall be authorized to enter any district other than the one to which he has been appointed, for the purpose of exercising authority. After an explanation, the second and third sections were agreed to.

Koontz moved to amend the 17th section, by providing that the compensation of internal revenue storekeepers be paid by the United States. Agreed to.

At the suggestion of Judd, the amendment offered to the 1st section of the bill, which was left undisposed of, was then taken up.

It was modified so as to read as follows, and adopted, to add to the requirements of the payment of fifty cents taxes on every gallon by the distiller, owner or any person having possession thereof, the words, "before removal from the distillery or warehouse." This allows no exceptions.

Boutwell offered an amendment to the 44th section, providing that the business of distilling alcohol and spirituous liquors for exportation may be authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury on application of the distillers, and that the distilleries not so authorized shall not distill for export. After some discussion and without action, the Committee took a recess.

The Speaker stated that he had decided that the Arkansas members should receive pay from the 13th of March, the day of their election, but as they claimed pay from the beginning of Congress he would refer the matter to the Judiciary Committee.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.

Howard introduced a bill retaining the Freedmen's Bureau and providing for its discontinuance. Referred to the Military Committee.

Conness called up the bill making eight hours a day labor for laborers and mechanics in Government employ, and the bill passed by 26 to 11.

The special order of the day being the Legislative Appropriation bill, it was then taken up. The question being on the amendment by the Committee on Appropriations to the House bill, the appropriation of $20,000 for the department of education was agreed to. Several minor amendments were also agreed to.

Johnson, from the Finance Committee, reported an amendment increasing the appropriation for salaries and expenses of internal revenue administration from $600,000 to $800,000, which was agreed to. Also the amendments increasing incidental appropriations for the Secretary of the Treasurer's office to $100,000, and appropriating $150 000 for temporary clerks in the Treasury Department. The former was agreed to. The latter occasioned a debate until adjournment, which, on account of Senator Henderson's wedding, was ordered to two o'clock to-morrow.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The Secretary of War sent to the House to-day an estimate from the Paymaster General of the amount required to meet the deficiences in the appropriations for the execution of the reconstruction acts to June 13th, 1869, it being $31,578, 25.

The Constitutional limit of ten days allowed the President to consider the omnibus bill, for the admission of the Southern States, expires to-morrow, when his veto may be expected, or else the bill becomes a law.

The Senate's Foreign Committee has decided to report against the House bill authorizing the President to send a war vessel to the Gulf stream to protect the interests of American fishermen.

The consideration of the nomination of Evarts as Attorney General has been postponed by the Senate Judiciary Committee until Saturday.

The bill submitted to the Senate to-day for the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau after the first of January next, was prepared by Elliott, the Chairman of the House Committee on Freedmen's Affairs.

The President to-day nominated Francis Webb, of Massachusetts, as Consul at Yombsr, and Perry Fuller, of Kansas, as Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

The estimate sent by Secretary Schofield to the Committee on Military Affairs, shows that by the expiration of time of service, the army will, on the first of January, 1869, be reduced to 29,667 men, and on the first of July, 1869, to 17,159.

The President has sent to the House to-day a message covering a letter by Mr. Seward, to our Secretary of Legation at London, inclosing a copy of the resolution passed by the House, in relation to the case of Warren and Costello, sentenced in Great Britain for words and acts spoken and done in this country, and calling his attention to the fact that the bill has passed the House and is now engaging the attention of the Senate, the effect of which, should it become a law, will be to require the President to make reprisals in case of the judicial murder of Great Britain of naturalized citizens of America the rights which are conceded to native Americans. Mr. Moran, the secretary, is instructed to read the communication to the British minister of Foreign Affairs.

A dispatch has been received from Gen. Sherman, who has arrived at St. Louis from New Mexico, where he and Col. Tappan have been superintending the removal of the Navaja Indians farther south.

There will be paid out of the Treasury on the 1st of July about $35,000,000 in coin, $7,000,000 of which is the principal of the loan of 1848, and the balance is the interest of the five-twenty and six per cent. bonds of 1881.

Col. Simcot who recently surveyed the Osage Indian lands, has arrived from an extensive tour in Kansas. He represents the Indians along its frontier as quiet and peaceable. The crops in Kansas are unusually fine, particularly the corn and wheat.

The Senate has recently approved a Consular Convention and an Extradition treaty with Italy.

—On Thursday, Robert Clemens, a teacher in Dayton, Ohio, committed suicide by severing the arteries in his wrists and cutting his throat. Unrequited love.

—Saburn Jones, over whose lynching by the Kuklux in Tennessee the Radicals set up such a dismal howl, has turned up alive and well at Waynesboro.

—T. C. Hooper, clerk in an oil refinery at Pittsburg, committed suicide on the 22d by taking laudanum. Domestic troubles the supposed cause.

—On Saturday John Greer, of West Jefferson, Ohio, stabbed and instantly killed an acquaintance named Hand, who accused him of having married a negress.

—Dr. Thomas C. Brinsmade died suddenly on the 23d, of disease of the heart, while presiding at a public meeting, called to aid the Russelar Institute. He was Vice-President of the American Medical Society, President of the State Medical Society in 1867, and was one of the delegates to the Paris Scientific Congress in 1867. He was sixty-five years old.

Scalawagton.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

We regret to learn, through a letter from a delegate, published recently in the Tribune, that the thousands of strangers who visited Chicago to participate in the proceedings of the National Republican Convention were rather shabbily entertained. They complain that their board bills were too big, their place of meeting was too little, and the city offered no amusement for whiling away their hours of leisure. This is really a very painful statement. Chicago has been termed by a celebrated statesman the Continental Metropolis of America; and one of its most illustrious journalists greeted New York as "the Chicago of the East." But what sort of a continental metropolis is that, we should like to know, which packs a National Convention into inconvenient quarters, and then swindles them in the bill? The moral of all this trouble is that no convention should ever meet in Chicago again.

—Judge Chase denies the authorship of the platform circulated as his.

—Greebaum & Co.'s cigar and tobacco store, at San Francisco, was destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. Loss, $75,000.

—Nashville has another buried treasure sensation. A dying ex-Federal soldier has disclosed that eighty-five thousand dollars in gold, the proceeds of his patriotism, is buried in that city, and parties are endeavoring to unearth it.

—At Nashville, in a fight in a saloon at Feigh's Pleasure Garden, near Ash Barracks, on Sunday, a man named John K. Ritter, was stabbed in the breast and severely cut about the forehead and chin, by George Frederick.

LOST—In the "smash up" at the Masonic picnic yesterday, a valuable whip and a light summer duster or sack coat. The finder will confer a favor by leaving them at the APPEAL office.

THE WEATHER yesterday was delicious—a happy blending of cloud and sunshine, and the summer air tempered by cool breezes. The thermometer did not range over 85 degrees Fahrenheit during the day.

THE SALE of Oil Paintings, Lithographs, Engravings, Mirrors, Show Cases, etc., will be continued this morning, at the salesrooms of W. H. Passmore & Co., No. 260 Second street. The ladies are respectfully invited to attend the sale.

IRISH LITERARY ASSOCIATION.—The usual weekly meeting of the above society will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock, in their hall, corner of Main and Adams street. An interesting question will be debated. All young men are invited.

FIRE.—Officers Wilkerson and Costello, on passing No. 275 Poplar street night before last, discovered the premises to be on fire. Arousing the inmates, and assisting them to bring buckets of water, the flames were soon subdued before any serious damage was done. It was evidently the work of an incendiary.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—A little negro named Anthony Kennon mounted the horse of one of the "Knights Templar," which was given him to hold, at the picnic yesterday, and the animal threw him, breaking his leg just above the knee. The fracture was a severe one, and will probably necessitate amputation.

CORRECTION.—We are informed that in our report of the exhibition of St. Agnes Academy yesterday, we were in error in stating that a beautiful piano cover which was shown us, was the work of Miss Fenwick, deceased. It was wrought by a lady who, it is true, is now dead. She was a Miss Alice Freeman, and graduated in 1860, delivering the valedictory of that class. She afterwards married J. W. Wilkerson, Esq., and died in February last.

TESTIMONIAL BENEFIT.—Let it be borne in mind that the amateurs will give a performance at the Memphis Club Hall on Friday evening, being a grand testimonial benefit to Capt. S. M. Drake, whose worth and services as a gallant soldier are thus acknowledged, and it is hoped they will be properly appreciated and attested by a crowded audience. We are not apprised what pieces will be produced on the occasion.

TO DELEGATES AND OTHERS, VISITING NEW YORK.—The Memphis and Louisville and Louisville and Indianapolis Railroad lines, with their connections with the fast line from this city to the East, offer to those wishing to make a speedy trip, the best advantages. The line via Louisville has the advantage of three trains East from Louisville, with trains arriving in New York hours in advance of all competing lines.

The superior condition of the track of this road, together with its unsurpassed sleeping cars and day coaches, render a trip over this line both speedy and comfortable. Delegates will be taken free over this line and all others sold tickets at half fare.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Tournament at Linde's Park comes off to-morrow. We are informed that about twenty knights have already entered the lists, and eight or ten more are on their way hither. In another place will be found a notice from Col. Coleman on the subject, of interest to every knight who has entered or expects to enter the lists.

The examination and commencement exercises of the LaGrange Female College will take place on the 26th and 27th inst., (Friday and Saturday.)

Do not lose sight of the two great picnics to come off on the 4th of next month—St. Peter's Orphan Asylum at James' Park, and St. Mary's Church at the Ford place, Chelsea. Both are for benevolent and worthy objects, and should be patronized.

The opening ball at Iuka Springs Hotel comes off to-night.

The Linden Street School of Professor Shattuck has an exhibition at Memphis Club Hall to-night. Professor Sabatzky will preside over the music.

THE TOURNAMENT.—Knights who have not already entered, are requested to call and pay their entrance fees before 12 o'clock to-day, at the office of Bigley, Mellersh & Co., Bethel Block; also to meet at the Park at 4 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of ballotting for the order of tilting. JAS. COLEMAN,

ST. JOHN'S DAY.

The Great Picnic at James' Park.

Considering the part borne by St. John the Baptist in the mysterious drama played eighteen hundred years ago, on which the Christian religion is founded, it is not wonderful that the day set apart for the observance of his nativity should be, in all ages and in all parts of the Christian world, one of the most popular of religious festivals. It enjoys the greater distinction, that it is considered as midsummer day, and therefore has inherited many observances from heathen times—indeed, like many others of highest holidays, its origin is clearly Pagan—or, to use the quaint phrase of an old translator of Scaliger, "they form the footsteps of auncient gentilitie," (that is of gentilism or heathenism.)

To make a bull, however, the observances of St. John's Day in England and Scotland, where it is an universal custom, is confined mainly to the previous evening, which is called "Midsummer Eve, or the Vigil of St. John," and we would like, did not time and space, or rather the lack of both, forbid us, to give a sketch of the curious and interesting ceremonies attendant upon its celebration.

Among Freemasons, all over the world, St. John's Day is the greatest of the year, and is always celebrated with great pomp and ceremony. In Scotland especially, it is kept with peculiar reverence. What happens on this day at Melrose, may be considered as a fair example of the whole. "Immediately after the election of officers for the year," says Wade, in his history of Melrose, "the brethren walk in procession three times round the Cross, and afterward dine together under the presidency of the newly elected Grand Master. About six in the evening the members again turn out, and form two abreast, each bearing a lighted flambeau and decorated with their peculiar emblems and insignia. Headed by the heraldic banners of the lodge, the procession follows the same route, three times round the Cross, and then proceed toward the Abbey. On these occasions the crowded streets present a scene of the most animated description. The joyous strains of a well conducted band, the waving torches and incessant showers of fireworks make the scene a carnival. But at this time the venerable Abbey is the chief point of attraction and resort, and as the mystic torch-bearers thread their way through its mouldering aisles and round its massive pillars, the outlines of its gorgeous ruins become singularly illuminated and brought into bold and striking relief. . . . The whole extent of the Abbey is with "measured tread and slow" gone three times round. When near the finale the whole Masonic body gather to the chancel, and forming one grand semicircle around it, where the heart of King Robert Bruce lies deposited near the high altar, and the band strikes up the patriotic air, "Scots wha ha'e wi' Wallace bled," the effect produced is overpowering. 'Mid showers of rockets and the glare of blue lights, the scene closes, reminding one of some saturnalia held in a Monkish town during the middle ages."

But revenons a nos moutons—the picnic yesterday. The weather was magnificent, and could we have had a consultation with the clerk of the weather, we could not have had it more to our wishes. The several Lodges assembled at nine o'clock a.m., at Court Square, and were formed in procession in the order indicated in the programme published in the papers yesterday and day before. The procession was a magnificent and gorgeous pageant. The long line of "Blue Lodge" Masons, on foot, clothed in their "lambskins," insignia and jewels, were followed by carriages bearing the orator of the day, A. J. Wheeler, Esq., Sovereign Grand Commander Albert Pike, Sovereign Grand Inspector General J. J. Worsham, and Most Eminent Prelate Dr. George White. In each of the carriages there were, besides, lovely young ladies, that of the Sovereign Grand Commander, being fairly dazzling with its display of beauty. Cyrene Commandery and the Knights Templar, mounted on splendid horses and clothed in the uniform of their order, acted as an escort to the whole, and brought up the rear. Headed by Arnold's cornet band, breathing martial strains, the column moved through Main street, attracting a vast concourse of lookers-on, to Vance street, and thence to the grounds—James' Park. On the grounds, the procession marched up to the stand, where they were halted and formed in two ranks, were disbanded and mingled with the concourse of visitors.

The Grand Marshal, Capt. George Mellersh, mounted the stand and announced the order of the day, and on descending, the band played a beautiful air, and the orator of the day mounted the stand and delivered his oration, at the close of which the manuscript was, by some means, which none of the committee were able to explain, given to the reporter of the Bulletin.

[The APPEAL is a recognized Masonic journal; it devotes a large amount of its space and time to the interests of the fraternity. It had its representative on the ground, to whom the manuscript was promised, and, in fact, in whose hands it already was, when it was recalled and given to the party of whom we spoke. Why this was done, (unless it was that they wished to get it printed along with the reports of the negro Masonic bodies, which also celebrated the day,) we are at a loss to imagine, and as it is a matter that we care very little about, we have not put ourselves to the slightest inconvenience to obtain the document, or even make a resume of the "slips" which were sent to us last night.]

After the oration, which by the way, was a very good one, a prayer was offered by the chaplain, and the assembled multitude betook themselves to enjoyment, the dancing arena being soon filled with couples moving in time to the animating strains of the band, which unwearyingly discoursed sweet music almost the entire day. About one o'clock baskets were unpacked and the tables were spread with most bounteous and elegant lunches. The Grand Marshal Capt. George Mellersh, seeing the reporter and another newspaper man standing looking forlornly on while all was preparation for the coming feast, took us up and delivered us into the kind hands of Mrs. J. M. Pamplin, to whom, and the fair young ladies with her, we are indebted for a most elegant and refreshing lunch. After lunch, dancing again began and continued until nearly dark with unabated zest.

Taken all in all, the pic nic was a grand success, by far the pleasantest and most brilliant that we ever attended. The most noticeable feature of it was the great number of beautiful young ladies who graced the scene. About two thousand persons were present, and, with the exception of one or two accidents, which happened outside the park, all went as merry as a marriage bell—not one unpleasant thing occurring to mar the pleasantness or brotherly feeling of all present. We have no doubt that it was, also, a success pecuniarily, and will materially swell the coffers of the Masonic relief fund, for whose benefit the pic nic was instituted.

THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Report of the Grand Jury.

Owing to its length, and the crowded conditions of our columns, we present below the report of the Grand Jury of the Criminal Court, without comment; although it is one of the most important documents that has ever been presented to our public. We advise a careful perusal of it by every one of our readers:

To Hon. William Hunter, Judge of the Criminal Court of Memphis:

The Grand Jury present, that they have taken a large amount of evidence as to the administration of justice in the Fifth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Civil Districts, and find violations of and abuses of law, which in many cases make legal proceedings a farce.

JUSTICES' COURTS.

The law requires two Justices of the Peace in the Fifteenth Civil District (Chelsea), six Justices in the Fifth Civil District, six in the Fourteenth Civil District, two in the Thirteenth Civil District. It appears that J. S. Black, Esq., and W. S. Walton, Esq., have abandoned their District and opened offices in the Fourteenth Civil District; that Hume F. Hill, Esq., of the Twelfth Civil District, has done the same, and R. H. Gibson, Esq., and Walter Stanley, Esq., have left the Fifteenth District without a magistrate, and opened offices in the Fifth Civil District. It will be seen that there are seventeen magistrates in the city of Memphis. The law makes it the duty of the Sheriff when a magistrate opens an office for the transaction of business in a district other than the one for which he was elected, to declare his office vacant, and hold an election for his successor. The Grand Jury are advised that the recent change in the law transfers this power to the Commissioner of Registration, as fully as it was formerly possessed by the Sheriff. But two of the magistrates fully comply with the law requiring them in all State cases to reduce to writing all the testimony, and forward the same to the Court to which the prisoner is bound to appear; these magistrates are H. M. Griffith and J. S. Black. Esquire Millard performs this duty, except when waived by both parties. Nearly all the magistrates fail to recognize prosecutors to appear before the Grand Jury. The failure of the Magistrates to perform their duty in this respect is one of the causes of delay in pushing business forward in the Criminal Court. The law does not permit every person to serve State process—no person except the Sheriff, his regular Deputies, regular Constables and Metropolitan policemen have power to do so; and no person has a right to serve civil process from Magistrates courts, except the Sheriff, his Deputies and Constables, except in cases when "there is no officer at hand and the business is urgent," when the Magistrate may appoint some person to execute process. The Sheriff, his Deputies and regular Constables give bond with securities for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices. Every Magistrate in the city, except 'Squire Kiernan, has from one to eight chosen parties regularly stationed at their offices, whom they style their Constables, and who are specially deputized to execute civil process, and whom most of the Magistrates deputise to execute State process. These so called special Deputy Constables number about fifty persons. They give no bonds, are not sworn, and although among them are a few respectable persons, the most are proven to be loafers and vagabonds, whom it would be the duty of the police to arrest. The Magistrates not only send their special deputies to serve State papers, which they have no power to do in any instance but appoint their special pet deputies, when the regular Constable is present, and the business is not urgent or no officer at hand. The regular bonded and sworn officers have scarcely anything to do, and are thereby deprived of the emoluments of their office, while the irresponsible "Deputy" transacts their business. The result of all this is, with seventeen magistrates and fifty special Deputy Constables, with their rivalry, their anxiety to make money and their zeal to outdo each other in subserviency to the demands of those who employ them, that suits are stirred up, the laws continually violated, and the so-called administration of public justice by the magistrates of the city of Memphis is a nuisance and a farce. All the magistrates, except Esquires Riley and Hall, accept fees in advance in State cases, while some of the magistrates demand their fees in such cases in advance, all of which they are advised is in violation of law.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

The Municipal Court was organized with exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors and felonies, where the maximum punishment does not exceed five years in the penitentiary, provided the offenses were committed within the jurisdiction of the Court; and the Judge of said Court has power to grant habeas corpus "within his jurisdiction." At first it was supposed that this meant territorial jurisdiction; but latterly we are advised Your Honor holds that it means power to grant writs of habeas corpus where the party is held for alleged offenses "within his jurisdiction." The Judge of the Municipal Court holds the contrary. The result of this is that the Judge of the Municipal Court issues writs of habeas corpus, bringing prisoners before him, and discharges or bails them, when they are again arrested by this Court and their bonds disregarded.

The business seems to be done in a loose and careless manner. Sometimes the bonds are sent in this court without any other papers, sometimes the papers without the bonds, sometimes no papers at all come. In one instance a prisoner, indicted in this court for murder, was released without bail, because there was no charge against him!

Grave doubts have been suggested whether, when a person indicted in this court for an offense of which it has jurisdiction, can be convicted of the lesser felonies. For instance if a person is indicted in this court for grand larceny—say a bedstead valued at eleven dollars—and the proof should show the stolen property to be only worth nine dollars, this would be petit larceny, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not exceeding five years—an offense of which the Municipal Court has exclusive jurisdiction. So, where a person is indicted for murder and the offense proven, is involuntary manslaughter. These questions cannot be finally settled until the Supreme Court meets next April. In the meantime a hundred or more cases arise which may have to be tried again. The public mind is demoralized by the want of uniform administration of justice. The "law's delay" in consequence thereof gives the guilty great opportunity for escape, and deprives the innocent of a "speedy trial" and acquittal. The Grand Jury respectfully suggests the propriety of laying this matter before the Legislature in order that the law-making power may settle the same.

NEW TRIALS.

One of the causes of delay in the proceedings of this court is the large number of new trials granted in cases of conviction, where a week or more has been spent in the trial. On inquiry we learn that nearly all these new trials have been granted in consequence of the misconduct and separation of jurors.

How far the separation of juries affects the validity of a verdict, in a legal sense, this Grand Jury is not advised; but that new "trials" are more the rule than the exception is a fact within our knowledge, and patent to all who are conversant with the records of this Court. That this is a monstrous evil no one will deny, incurring heavy additional expenses, as well as filling the county jail and greatly delaying justice. If the separation of a jury is sufficient ground for granting a new trial, then it is certainly such an offense as this Court may punish. Whether there are other grounds upon which new trials are frequently granted, this jury is not advised. We respectfully submit that this Court use its powers to punish all who so offend, believing that by this means the evil may be remedied.

DISTANCE OF JAIL.

Another cause of delay in the business of the Court is the distance of the jail from the Courthouse. If the Court wishes a prisoner, an officer has to be sent to the jail for him and a delay of one or two hours is had, during which the Court, officers, jurors and witnesses do nothing, and this when 165 persons are in prison awaiting trial.

JURY SYSTEM.

It appears to the Grand Jury that there is a defect in the jury system or in its practical workings, for not unfrequently more time is occupied in getting a Jury than in trying prisoners.

"STRAW BAIL."

It has been shown to the satisfaction of the Grand Jury that there are a class of persons in this city who make a business of "going bond," and who are worthless. They are ready at all times for a small consideration, to sign anybody's bond, and, if necessary, make good their claim as "sound" by the most unblushing and barefaced perjury, and this they have heretofore been able to do with impunity, for it appears that for years back the officers of the Court cannot call to mind one single case where a forfeited bond has been collected. The universal return is "no property," while in a large number of cases the bondsmen cannot be found—the bonds being signed in a fictitious name, or by companions of the prisoner who flee with him.

The Grand Jury would most respectfully represent to your Honor that more caution be used in the taking of bail. Where applications are made for bail, would it not be a safeguard in the future if your Honor would consult the Sheriff and County Register as to the solvency of the sureties? We would also suggest the Sheriff have a close spring wagon, so arranged that prisoners could be carried to and from the jail so as to save time. Prisoners seem to have accumulated, and the Court has to be industrious to get the docket reduced during the present term. Business men can now attend as jurors without serious injury to their business. If your Honor will, through the Attorney-General, have sure action taken in reference to the present pernicious course of magistrates, we think the business of all the Courts would be reduced.

YOUTHFUL PRISONERS.

Not only are there a large number of youthful delinquents in jail, but large numbers run the streets and are arrested and confined in the stationhouse. The experience of older communities has, we think, settled the question that it agrees with the humanity of the age, the interests of society, and the future of the young offender to establish for this class a house of refuge or workhouse. No city is more sadly in need of such a place than Memphis.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.

The Criminal Court of Memphis requires an Attorney General of marked legal ability, of business tact, and sufficiently acquainted with our people to know the character of witnesses, jurors and defendants. In order to command such ability and to keep it, he must be paid. The present compensation is entirely inadequate. Formerly the fees of Attorney Generals arising from misdemeanors afforded reasonable compensation; but since the Municipal Court has taken exclusive cognizance of that class of cases, the pay is merely nominal. Gentlemen of ability, in order to become known to the community, may for a short period accept the office, but as soon as they become effective they will leave their place and resume their private practice.

CLERK'S BOOKS.

The jury have had examined the books kept by the Clerk, H. L. Fox, and his deputy, R. S. Capers, and find them in good order and style and correctly kept.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
H. D. Connell, Foreman of the Grand Jury; J. T. McCoy, James C. Marshall, R. Cark, R. A. Hughes, W. W. Coleman, J. P. Miller, J. D. Williams, J. T. Ferguson, Geo. H. Blood, J. E. Carpenter, Oscar F. Prescott.

SHELBY CIRCUIT COURT—George W. Reeves, Judge.—On yesterday Judge Phelan made the final argument in the contested election cases of Garvin vs. McLean, and Woodward vs. Wickersham, in behalf of the present incumbents. Judge Phelan's speech was quite an able one. A large crowd of prominent Radicals and negroes attended the Courtroom during the delivery of the Judge's argument on behalf of their elected friends. The attendance of the sable crowd in the Circuit Courtroom was quite an unusual occurrence. In the other courtrooms in the city this has become quite a nuisance. To-day will be motion day in this Court.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—The argument of the counsel in the case of the State vs. John Garin, murder, closed last evening. A verdict will probably be rendered to-day.

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest price. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners, front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep3 dewly

MEMPHIS APPEAL BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

BOSTON, June 24.—The base ball match yesterday, at Cambridge, between the Harvard University Club and the Nashua Club, of Princeton College, N. J., resulted in victory for the Harvard Club, by a score of seventeen to sixteen. There was a great crowd of spectators.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mrs. Ernestine Oakes, wife of the late Henry Steinway, applied to Justice Gilbert yesterday, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, for a writ of habeas corpus directing Wm. Steinway, the piano-forte manufacturer of this city, to produce her children, whom she alleges have been unlawfully withheld from her by the respondent, and placed in charge of a petty magistrate in Germany. Judge Gilbert ordered a habeas corpus to be issued, and the case will shortly be brought before the Court, when singular developments are expected.

Thomas Fitzgerald, who was to have been hanged on Friday next, at White Plains, Westchester county, New York, for murdering Ellis Hicks, has been reprieved until the 9th of October, by Gov. Fenton, to enable the Governor to inquire closely into the facts of the case.

A terrific storm of hail, rain and wind visited what is known as the Neck District, in Dorchester county, Maryland, on Sunday evening last. Large trees were torn up by the roots, and the corn and wheat crops in several places nearly destroyed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Late advices from Arizona render probable the election of McCormick, the Union delegate, to Congress.

MADRID, June 24.—Senor Rubicon, in taking possession of the ministry of the colonies, made an address to his subordinates, in which he urged them to devote all their energies to promote the commerce and prosperity of the colonies of Spain.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Haytien advices of the 23d state that Salnave has ordered an exchange of prisoners at Cape Haytien, as he wishes to prevent the population of the Capital from revolting. He threatens to bombard the city rather than let the insurgents get possession; also threatens the same thing if any foreigners are caught introducing warlike material or stores, and he has so notified foreign consuls. It is stated that his army consists of only seven men and three hundred Cyprians.

Salnave insults all foreigners except Americans. An English bearer of dispatches was maltreated by him and afterwards put in prison. Gen. Faubert attacked Fort Alexander, and forty of his troops were killed and wounded. Among the latter was Gen. Narcisse. Salnave refuses all parties and is determined not to relinquish the Presidency until compelled.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, June 24, 1868.

Business was very quiet to-day in all departments, in fact extreme dullness, would be a more appropriate term, and the habitues of Madison and Front streets had little to do, beyond the discussion of politics and crop prospects. The Masonic picnic took a great many from the heated flags of the city to the refreshing shades of the country. Those who remained in town might as well have shut up shop for all the business there was done or for all the money there was made.

Money is easy at the banks and Exchange dull. Drafts on any point are very little in demand, but ¼ to ⅜ prem. remain the checking rates on the North and East and are likely to be for some months to come. The few bills offered at the banks pass generally at par. Southern Exchange is entirely nominal.

Gold is very little in demand locally, while the receipts are so lightly in excess that dealers experience some difficulty in making up respectable shipments. It opened in New York to-day at 140¼ and closed firm. Rates here were 139 buying and 140 selling, in small transactions.

City Scrip remains quiet and very firm at 80 to 82c in the hands of dealers, who offer, however, only 76 to 78c for the small amounts now and then presented at the counter. We failed to learn of a noteworthy transaction.

City Bonds were in demand at 55c, and one party intimated that he would pay 56c for a desirable offering, but there was none on the market. The tendency is steadily upward.

County Scrip was dull and nominally 60 to 62c buying, and 64 to 65c selling.

Police Scrip was abundant and dull at the extremes of 80c buying, and 85 selling.

Railroad securities were somewhat in demand, although as a general thing there was an absence of orders. One party was in the market, we are told, for $20 000 Memphis and Little Rock bonds, 1st mortgage, at 44, on an order. There was also an order for Memphis and Charleston stock at 55 to 56. Other bonds, etc., remain as before, viz: Memphis & Ohio Railroad, 10s; 1st Mortgage, bonds 10s, 30c; 2d Mortgage bonds 6s, 20c; Mississippi Central Railroad bonds, 1st Mortgage, 57 to 58c; 2d Mortgage, 40 to 41c; Mississippi and Tennessee 1st Mortgage, 50c; Mississippi and Tennessee 2d Mortgage, 33c.

Tennessee 6s were quoted in New York to-day at 77c for new and 77¾ for old.

Cotton was weak in New York this morning at 30c and closed dull and heavy at 29¾c, and holders unwilling to make concessions. Sales 600 bales.

The Liverpool market was also heavy, sales at 11:15 a.m. being 7000 bales at 11¼d for Uplands and 11¾d for Orleans.

Our own market also exhibited some weakness, although holders generally contended for New York rates. Some small "dabs" of Middling changed hands during the day at 29c, which was an extreme outside view of buyers at the close. The only transaction of any claims to importance was 21 bales Ordinary to Good Ordinary at 24c.

Wheat is in good demand, but at lower rates, the tendency in St. Louis being steadily downward. The ruling bids to-day for good were $1 75 to $1 80, at which there were moderate sales to shippers, but $1 90 to 2 was paid for some small lots of choice. For the average quality coming to this market $1 80 per bushel is the quotation, although $1 75 may be hard to realize to-morrow.

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND ACcepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d, Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. splendidly illustrated with Chromolithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

"It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to many of the fourteenth in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro. Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromolithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.
